Contents

Richard's Castle

Tune: The Keel Row: http://www.folktunefinder.com/tunes/169427

Sequence: Intro + (A.B) x 4

Note: A and B each include the repeat as written – i.e. A and B are 8 bars each.
Some people would write this as Intro + (2A.2B) x 4.

Bromsberrow Heath

Tune: Cock o' the North:
https://themorrisring.org/tradition/eynsham/music/cock-north

Sequence: Intro +(2A.B) x 4.

Start slowly for the first A.
Increase speed at the beginning of each B (sticking/capering part).
First B: normal speed
Second B: fast
Third V: faster
Fourth B: stupidly fast.

Getting Upstairs

Tune: Getting Upstairs: http://www.folktunefinder.com/tunes/160864

Sequence: Intro + (A.B) x 5

> Note: A and B each include the repeat as written – i.e. A is 8 bars and and B is 16 bars.
> Some people would write this as Intro + (2A.2B) x5.

Weobley Hankie Dance
