

The Continuing Tradition

Black Cockatoo in the Baobab Tree

composed by Western Australian accordion player, Bob Rummery

Musical score for 'Black Cockatoo in the Baobab Tree' in G major, 3/8 time. The score consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a repeat sign and a double bar line. The second staff includes first and second endings. The third and fourth staves conclude the piece with a final double bar line.

Chord progression: G, Am, D, G, D, G, Am, D7, G, C, G, D, D7, G, C, G, D7, G.